Our Mother's Day Brunch was very successful. We had over 40 mothers attending our brunch! Our sincere thank to the City of Trotwood for hosting, TM Schools for sponsoring and Sam's Club for providing a rose to each mother. Our oldest mother was 94 and the youngest was 31 years old.

Some of the pictures from the brunch are in this newsletter. Our thanks Sean Freeman and Charles Wheeler for taking pictures.

Workers' Compensation through Hunter Consulting

The Southern Ohio Chamber Alliance provides an extensive range of programs to local businesses of all industries in Ohio. We invite you to view the Workers' Compensation program below.

Workers' Compensation Benefits and Support

Finding proper coverage for employees as a small business can be a challenging task, especially with the high cost of workers' compensation insurance premiums and the complexity of regulations.

That's why SOCA partners with Hunter Consulting to provide workers' compensation benefits to small businesses to provide workers comp coverage and risk management strategies.

Workers' Compensation Group Rating Group rating programs through Hunter Consulting allow customers to join together to share in the cost savings of workers' compensation insurance. By participating in the group rating program through Hunter Consulting, members can take advantage of significant cost savings on their workers' compensation premiums.

An Experienced Workers' Compensation Provider Hunter Consulting has the workers' compensation experience you need for your business.
